

9TH ANNUAL WOMEN IN ENERGY SEMINAR

MAKE AN IMPACT IN YOUR CAREER

GENDER BALANCE AS A BUSINESS ISSUE, WHY IT MATTERS

MONDAY 2ND MARCH 2015

ROYAL INSTITUTION, 21 ALBERMARLE STREET, LONDON, W1S 4BS

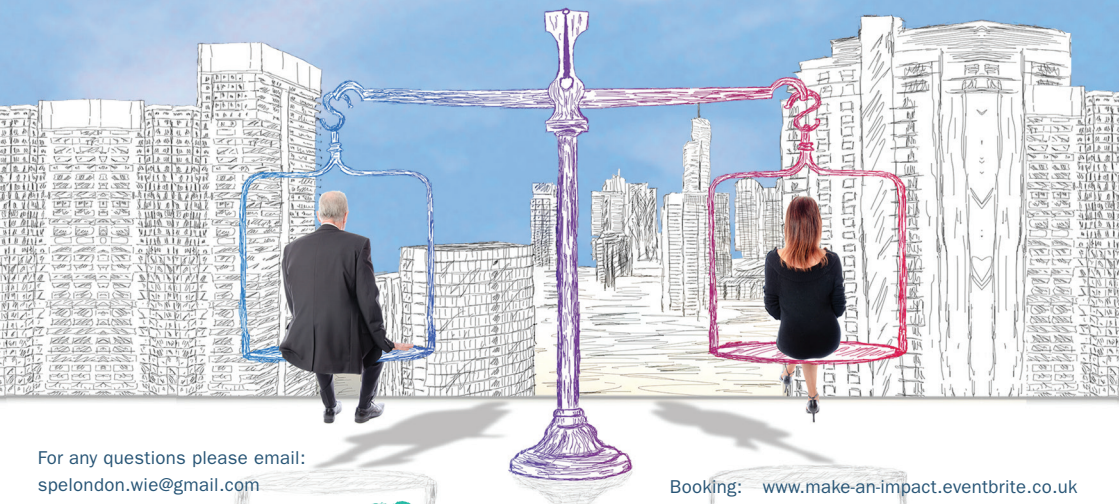

A diverse workforce is beneficial to a company as a whole, but how can this really be achieved?

Who is this seminar aimed at:

- All professionals, male and female, working in the energy sector
- All backgrounds including engineering, finance, administration, HR and management
- All levels from students to experienced professionals will benefit from sharing experiences

Why you should attend:

- To enable you to take charge of your success and perform your best at all the stages of your career
- Keynote speeches from leaders within the industry sharing views, career journey and company practices
- Speech by Mary Honeyball, MEP who will share the government's view on gender diversity and initiatives
- Gender bilingual workshops including communication, time effectiveness, conscious and unconscious biases, leadership and impostor syndrome
- Get a deep understanding of the business case of gender balance to drive the success of your business
- A great opportunity to network with like-minded people in the energy sector

For any questions please email:
spelondon.wie@gmail.com

Booking: www.make-an-impact.eventbrite.co.uk
Cost: General admission £60, £20 for students

This event is sponsored by:

GOLD:  AFREN

SILVER:

JX Nippon Exploration and Production (U.K.) Limited

Schlumberger

BRONZE:

